

CHRISTMAS SUGGESTIONS

Boone Kitchen Cabinets

ARE THE BEST CABINETS MADE. THEY ARE BEST IN DESIGN, FINISH AND WORKMANSHIP. WHY NOT BUY THE GOOD WIFE ONE FOR CHRISTMAS?

Chiffrobes

A DRESSER, CHIFFONIER AND WARD-ROBE COMBINED IN AN ARTISTIC PIECE OF FURNITURE. JUST THE THING WHEN YOU WANT LOTS OF ROOM IN SMALL SPACE.

Dressers, Chiffoniers, Stands

From the Cheap ones to the Best. A variety no one else offers. We save you money. Special Things for Christmas.

Rockers

ALL KINDS, SORTS AND SIZES
We can Fill Your Needs.

Rockers

I can give you Better Value for your money than anyone else, BECAUSE I KNOW THE MARKET and BUY CHEAPER.

Rolla S. Paul.

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE.

Interesting Items gathered by our County Correspondents.

HAPPY HOLLOW.

Miss Della Powell Mrs. Wm Gruber and daughter of Danville spent Sunday the guest of Phil Johnson and family.

Harry Burts and wife visited at the latter's parents Ben Prestons from Wednesday until Friday.

Mrs. Paul Jackson and daughter and Mrs. T. Sanders of Montgomery spent Thursday at Marion Burts.

Mrs. Phil Johnson and son Everett and wife transacted business in Montgomery Saturday.

Wm. Taylor and wife were the guest of the latter's parents near Wellsville one day last week.

Wm. Baines spent Sunday at Albert Gliser's.

Thomas Burts was in Wellsville Saturday.

John Mitchell and son of Danville were the guest of his father's family Sunday.

Everett Johnson and wife moved Monday to the C. K. Sheets farm.

Albert Gliser and wife visited his mother north of Montgomery last week.

Call and see our Christmas candies before you buy. Hassler & Son.

LOUTRE.

R. L. McCarty and wife spent Saturday night with Ed Stiegman G. A. Brookshier and family visited Mrs. Annie Stiegman and family Sunday.

Wm. Timmerberg and family spent Sunday with his brother Harmon and family of near Americus.

There was a pie supper given at the Bridge School Friday night, there was 32 pies and they brought $14.05.

Ed Stiegman and family visited at R. L. McCarty's and wife Sunday.

day.

Everett Milikan and family spent Saturday night and Sunday with her parents C. H. Thompson and family of near Americus.

L. F. Clark and family spent Sunday with Frank Ellis and family of near Big Spring.

C. E. Brookshier and family visited August Stiegman and family Sunday.

Paul Stiegman is working for Lee Shackelford of Americus learning the Blacksmith trade.

Hog killing and wood sawing is the order of the day. The Mule.

We just can't help talking about a good thing, Morses chocolates at Hassler & Son.

LOCUST GROVE.

Dick White and wife were shopping in Wellsville Tuesday and attended the poultry show there.

Quite a few of the farmers have been shredding fodder.

The lecture given by Sup't. W. F. Hupe Saturday night at the school house was well attended.

Simon Wehrman is on the sick list this week.

Ben Mabry and family spent Sunday at John Wells.

F. Wehrman delivered hogs in Montgomery Monday.

News Girl.

In everybodys mouth, Morses chocolates at Hassler & Son.

PEYTONIA.

Fine winter weather at this writing.

Charles Penn and family have moved into Prof. R. W. Hunley's dwelling.

Mrs. Hattie Morrow who was visiting relatives in Ohio returned home last week.

Thomas J. Powell was at Montgomery City, on business last week.

Charles Penn, sold three fat hogs on the market at Montgomery City, Tuesday for $7.10 per cwt they averaged about 235 lbs. each and brought $50.05 in cash.

LINCOLN SCRAPS.

Mrs. Warren Oden's is on the sick list this week.

Mrs. Mary Holstein was visiting at J. W. Fowler's last Thursday.

Neil Oden and wife and daughter Katie spent Sunday at Fred Holsteins.

Born to John Barton and wife Dec. 6 a girl.

Charlie Steele and wife were visiting at Will Cowans.

Miss Viola Pitts is staying at John Barton's this week.

Pearl Davidson and wife of Montgomery City spent several days the past week at Minott Davidson's.

Lilac.

I will continue my Millinery Sale until all my fall and winter Millinery is sold.

Mrs. Jessie Beasley.

CROSS ROADS.

Most of the farmers in this vicinity are through gathering corn. quite a little corn being sold for 40 cents delivered.

Jas. Dunbar and family of Hope-well were Sunday visitors at W. H. Berge's.

Fuhr Bros received a car of barn material at Buell Friday.

J. J. Maupin who has been in the employ of J. T. Hensley for the past three years, moved to his farm here last week.

Owen Rowlings and wife of Buell, and Mrs. C. F. Kraft visited J. J. Maupin and family and Fred Kraft and family Sunday.

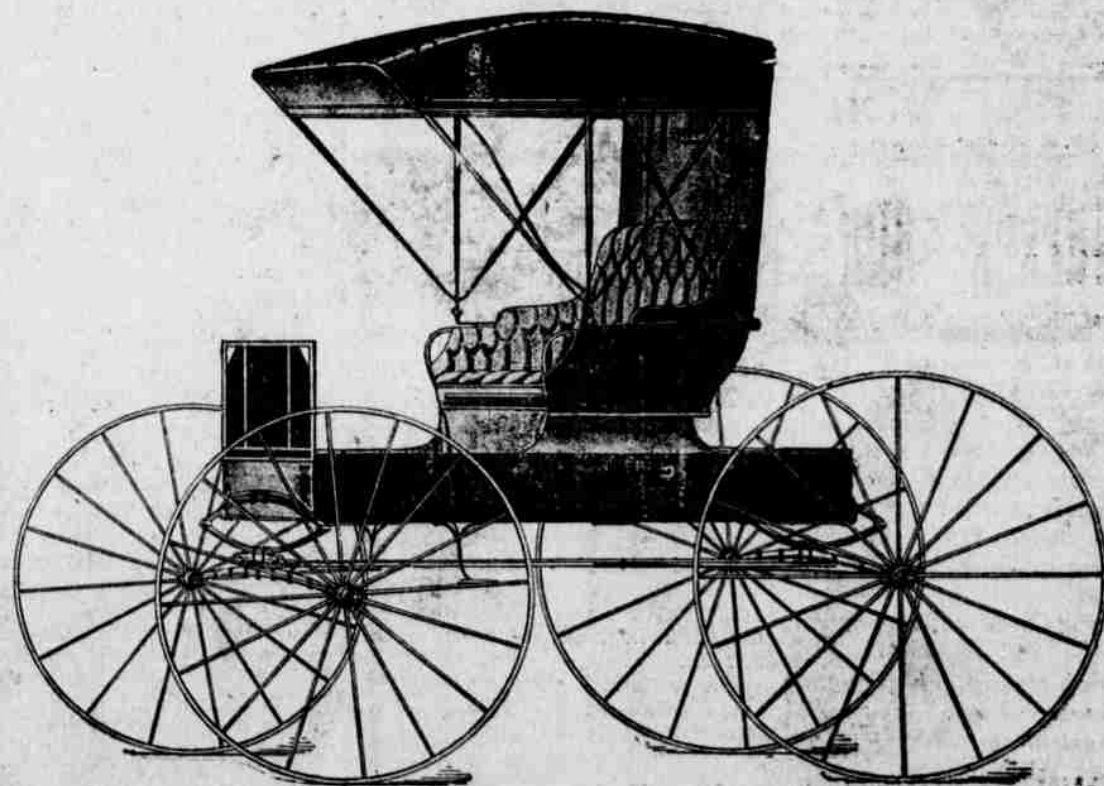

Quite a number from here were trading in Wellsville Monday and taking in the Poultry Show.

We extend sympathy to Lester Walker and wife of Buell in the loss of their infant son, who died Sunday night of Pneumonia.

Fuhr Bros. were loading a car of wheat at Buell Monday and Tuesday.

Try our White Wing flour, it makes fine light bread and biscuit. Wheeler, Ball & Whiteside.

Xmas Nuts, candy and Fruit and cigars at Eugene's.

I Will Sell At Cost

Three Top Buggies, Three Surries
Three Run-a-bouts

Because I need the floor space. Call and see them. They are beauties and big bargains.

We are making a specialty of the Racine Sattley Goods. None better.

T. H. BRITT & SON

MONTGOMERY CITY, MISSOURI.